

Arguably still the most refined and luxurious tippable for a special occasion, champagne is produced exclusively within the Champagne region of France. A sparkling wine that gained global esteem because of its association with the nobility and French royalty, champagne is also recognised as the benchmark symbol of romance and celebration.

